

NEW ENGLAND DAWN

1:50

by Dan Wolaver

♩ = 55 While na-ture slum-bers— there comes a glow, a

S p Oh, _____ there comes a

A p Oh, _____ there comes a

T _____

B _____

4 glow _____ soft and low, _____ soft and

pp

glow _____ soft _____ and low, _____ soft _____ and glow _____ soft _____ and low, _____ pp pp glow, — there comes a glow _____ soft and low, _____ soft and p pp

there comes a glow soft and 8 low. p

low. Do do, do do do, do do do do do do. And oth-er low. Do do, do do do, do do do do do.

8 A sing-le bird tries his plain-tive song.

low. Do do do do do do. and oth-er

12 mp

voic-es now join the throng. The morn-ing mist fills the vale with gray; as yet no

Do do, now join the throng. The morn-ing mist fills the vale with gray; as yet no

Do do, now join the throng. The morn-ing mist fills the vale with gray; as yet no

voic-es now join the throng. The morn-ing mist fills the vale with gray; as yet no

16 mf faster p mp sun-beams melt it a - way. A gleam of light ap-pears; the sun-beams melt it a - way. A gleam of light ap-pears; the sun-beams melt it a - way. A gleam, a gleam of light ap-pears; the sun-beams melt it a - way. A gleam of light ap-pears; the 20 mf f mf f mf f mf f sun the moun-tain clears. Full orb-ed we see it rise as sun, the sun the moun-tain clears. Full orb-ed, full-orb-ed we see it rise as sun the moun-tain clears. Full orb-ed we see it rise as sun the moun-tain clears. Full orb-ed we see it rise as

24

molto rit. $\text{♩} = 70$ ff molto rit. $\text{♩} = 70$ ff ff ff ff

now the dawn comes up like thun-der in the skies!
 now the dawn comes up like thun-der in the skies!
 now the dawn comes up like thun-der in the skies!
 now the dawn comes up like thun-der in the skies!

Tympani

mf f ff fff